Wingate University

All of life is a journey. One step at a time, we learn, grow and experience different things. We direct our travel every day, tactfully deciding what path we will take next. Here at Wingate, all of us have chosen the same locale to experience a part of our expedition. Our paths cross daily, as we walk among each other in the DPC or drive together on the roads. Whether it be briefly or for all four years, we affect each other's lives here, and shape the way this part of our life experience turns out.

For many of us, Wingate University is a place we look to fondly as a home for a few years of our venture through life. But for those same ones of us, Wingate is also a stepping stone into a greater, larger world that comes closer with each passing year.

We are all taking advantage of what this place has to offer us: a Passport to Adventure.

Daily Travel

Student Life

Home Away

Nikki Ervin and Sharon Morrison take some time out from their busy schedule to worship.

Stuart Richardson works hard finishing a paper.

Darrian Roberson passes time playing NBA Live.

Mike Wood and Brad Palmor bring a little Christmas to Jefferson.

Melissa Alder talks on the phone while surfing the net - the typical habits of a college female.

A favorite among Wingate students, David Thompson and Benjamin Richardson sit back and play video games.

Jen Hunt, Rachel Bleacher, Erin Holmes, and Jenni Connor spend some quality time chatting in North Campus.

From Home

Keith Kipler begins his days here at Wingate by checking in and filling out forms. He hasn't yet reached the packet that will give him writer's cramp due to all the surveys.

Cassie Nasyparay found something to keep her busy; she's assembling a TV stand in the midst of the boxes around her.

Bud Riely recruits his family on move-in day as he happily goes into Helms dormitory.

Orientation at Wingate is not complete without an appearance by Hypnotist Jim Wand, who got Demeko Freeman to perform a Jennifer Lopez number for the crowd.

Rootbeer Runners team members Robert Erb, Justin Bright, Andrew Harp and Brian Watson play some beach volleyball and take a break from the chaos of move-in and enjoy the weather fit for athletics.

Laura Loiodice sits on her newly made bed with her mother Cherly as they look through the orientation pamphlet for something to do, which was themed this year "The Gate of Opportunity."

The Journey Begins

Possibly the most anticipated event of the year, 112 performed as the closing act of Spring Fling 2003.

Ron Clarke and Ryan Major enjoy Casino Night during Spring Fling.

Naturally Seven entertained during Homecoming, thanks to APB!

Students enjoy the Superbowl party hosted by Dr. McGee and APB.

The comedian hired by APB sure seems to be doing a good job!

A Wacky Wednesday favorite, these five APB members hand out ice cream on hot days towards the end of the year.

Tourist Attractions

Family Back in Town

Associate Director of Admissions, Phillip Lopp, speaks on behalf of Wingate on a beautiful Saturday morning.

Before the Bulldogs took on the Tusculum Pioneers at 1:30, Outback provided our families with a buffet lunch.

Zefy Sarrimanolis and her father have traded the scene of the bleachers for the shade and a wall.

Marchelle Robinson and her mother sit down after a long day of activities.

The football intramural team watches critically on the side.

This intramural forward brings the ball down court to the rest of his team.

Patrick Biggerstaff sits by and watches his team.

This football athlete takes hold of the ball and tries to find an opening.

Naturally Seven, one of last year's favorite groups, returned to Wingate for a concert in Jefferson quad on Saturday night.

Mrs. North Carolina participated in the halftime festivities and helped Dr. Jerry McGee crown the 2002 Homecoming King and Queen.

The football team fought hard against Mars Hill in the Homecoming match. After double overtime the Bulldogs lost 30-24.

Over 100 people participated in the Homecoming 5K Run and 1.5 mile Fun Walk/Run. Bethany Willis helps students register for the event.

*There's somethin' mighty precious about this here land. Families sink their roots way deep into this soil. It nourishes them and helps 'em grow strong 'n stay close... You know a lot of folks say some terrible things about the Old South. They laugh and say we're backwards; cuz we talk slow and move at a more leisurely pace...
They don't understand that we in the South talk slow and move slow 'cuz
we intend to enjoy this beautiful old world the Good Lord saw fit to hand us... The beauty of this here land lies in the people who walk it.*

Daily Education

Academics

In the classroom, the Wingate-In-London group works hard to complete their assignments. Bearing a heavy classload, the group read over 7,000 pages during the semester!

During the semester, the group had access to the Senate House Library. Bobby Jollifield, Annye Scrogg, Tom Manshach, Jennifer Haney, Domenic Buonadonna, Daniel Stanford, Luke Lingle and Jennifer Justice stand outside the prestigious library.

Destination:

On the University sponsored trip to Scotland, the group had the opportunity to climb one of the highest peaks in Edinburgh.

Atop the mountain in Scotland,
Dr. Napier and the group rest after a long hike.

During their first week in London, the group and Wingate-In-London advisor Dr. Martha Asti meet in a local French restaurant for a welcome banquet.

London

Stonehenge is perhaps one of the most pre-historic monuments in the world. During a trip to the city of Salisbury, the group has the opportunity to visit this ancient site.

Aside from University sponsored trips and the semester classload, some students took advantage of the opportunity to travel on their own. Daniel Stanford, Luke Lingle and Chandler Atkins enjoy their weekend in Venice, Italy.

Destination: London

In their flat, Laura McCurry, Robyn Gorham and Julia Gough get ready to sample the London nightlife.

During their time in Scotland, Andrew Dahlgren and Spencer Delbridge don some of the traditional Scottish attire.

Joe Lee visits the Lama Temple in Beijing, China.

Destination: Hong Kong

Joe Lee and another traveler, Matt David, in front of The Gate of Heavenly Peace in Beijing, China.

Our lone Hong Kong student sits on a stone at the Tin Hou's Temple in Macau, China.

SUMMER RESEARCH PROJECTS

OPERATION: IRAQI FREEDOM

I would like to preface this next writing with some personal thoughts. I ask that each of you take a moment and read this composition carefully and open mindedly. As is obvious from the photos on these pages, this is about Operation Iraqi Freedom, which began halfway through our school year. Since this happened in the midst of not only this academic year, but our lives, it is history we will be able to share with our children and I felt it was important to remember in this way:

This composition focuses on the average male soldier. I understand and recognize that women serve and deserve equal attention, but this caught my heart and I felt the need to share it with you all. The type of man this talks about is the type of person who is defending our country and all of our rights. Politics and personal beliefs aside for us all, these men and women - most of whom are our age - deserve our respect and gratitude for keeping this country safe. I pray that one day we no longer need such defense, but until we do I thank God daily for those who defend us all and help keep this country the way our forefathers made for it to be. I hope you do the same.

Thank you for reading. God bless the men and women serving the country, be they Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, or anyone else.

~Tiffany Coldron, Gate Editor

average age of the military man is 19 years. He is a short-haired, tight-muscled man who, under normal circumstances, is considered by society as half-man, half-boy. He has a dry beard behind the ears, not old enough to drink a beer, but old enough to die for his country.

He has never really cared much for work and he would rather wax his own car than wash his clothes; but he has never collected unemployment.

He is a recent high school graduate; he was probably an average student, pursued some kind of sport activities, drives a ten-year-old car, and has a steady girlfriend that either makes up with him when he left, or swears to wait for him when he returns from half a world away.

He listens to rock and roll, or hip-hop, or rap, or jazz, or swing and 155mm Howitzers.

He is 10 or 15 pounds lighter now than when he was at home because he is working hard fighting from before dawn to well after dark.

He has trouble spelling, thus letter writing is a pain for him, but he can field strip a rifle in 10 seconds and reassemble it in less time than it takes to get to the dark.

He can recite to you the nomenclature of a machine gun or grenade launcher and use either one effectively if he must.

He digs foxholes and latrines and can apply first aid like a professional.

He can march until he is told to stop or stop until he is told to march.

He obeys orders instantly and without hesitation, but he is not without spirit or individual dignity. He is self-sufficient. He has two sets of fatigues: he washes one and wears the other. He keeps his canteens full and his feet dry. He sometimes forgets to brush his teeth, but never to clean his rifle.

He can cook his own meals, mend his own clothes, and fix his own hurts.

If you're thirsty, he'll share his water with you; if you are hungry, his food. He'll even split his ammunition with you in the midst of battle when you run low.

He has learned to use his hands like weapons and weapons like they were his hands. He can save your life - or take it, because that is his job.

He will often do twice the work of a civilian, draw half the pay and still find ironic humor in it all.

He has seen more suffering and death than he should have in his short lifetime. He has stood atop mountains of dead bodies, and helped to cremate them. He has wept in public and in private, for friends who have fallen in combat, and is unashamed.

He feels every note of the National Anthem vibrate through his body while at rigid attention, while tempering the burning desire to 'square-away' those around him who haven't bothered to stand, remove their hat, or even stop talking. In an odd twist, day in and day out, far from home, he defends their right to be disrespectful.

Just as did his Father, Grandfather, and Great-grandfather, he is paying the price for our freedom.

Beardless or not, he is not a boy.

He is the American Fighting Man that has kept this country free for over 200 years. He has asked nothing in return, except our friendship and understanding. Remember him, always, for he has earned our respect and admiration with his blood.

Colophon

The Gate was printed by Jostens Publishing Company and represented by Bill Hall. Captions were printed in AYTDavid in either ten or twelve point. Headlines used various fonts, sizes and styles as approved by the publishing company. Captions and copy were compiled by the identified writer or by the Gate Staff. One thousand copies were printed and distributed to students, faculty and staff at no additional cost to their tuition.
